

CITY INTELLIGENCE

[For Additional Local Items see Third Page.]

A ROTOR CUSTOMER ON THE RAMPAGE.—William Cutler is assuming a pugnacious and dangerous character as can be found outside the sacred precincts of the State Penitentiary. He has been going it with a perfect license for some time, but was brought up with a round turn last night, and is now confined by Alderman Bettler. In September last William went to the house of Mrs. Robinson, No. 28 Strawberry street, and going up into the parlor laid down to take a nap. He was ordered to leave by Mrs. Robinson, when he made a violent assault on the unprotected female, hitting her several blows and knocking her down, after which he left her parts unknown. On Saturday night, however, he turned up again at the same house, and wanted something to drink and a cigar. The bartender, Mr. Linden, refused his demand, when he seized a pitcher and knocked the bartender down by a blow on the head, after which he again left.

On Sunday night, still laboring under the effects of bad whisky, which excited his organs of combativeness to a sublimated extent, he entered the restaurant of Miss Wood, at Second and Market streets, and got two meals, for which he refused to hand over the equivalent in cash. A controversy ensued, when, acting true to his brutal instincts, he assaulted and knocked her down. He was arrested last night, and placed in one of the cells at the Central Station, but still found an opportunity to indulge in his favorite pastime of displaying his muscle on unoffending parties, and was placed in the same cell with a German, with whom he speedily picked a quarrel, and his last operation was to tear off his boots, and using them on the body of the said German, knocked him down, and mutilated him. He was afterwards committed on several charges to the sum total of $500, having had hearings before Alderman Bettler and White.

DEATH OF A PROMINENT CITIZEN.—Yesterday James Nevins, Esq., at one time one of our most prominent brokers and estimable citizens, died at his residence in this city. He was born in Norwich, Connecticut, in August, 1790, and is the only survivor of twelve children of Colonel David Nevins, of that place. His brother was for many years senior partner of the firm of Nevins, Townsend & Co., of New York city. Mr. Nevins came to Philadelphia in 1813, and in partnership with his brother, Samuel Nevins, very soon established a large and prosperous brokerage business. The firm was afterwards changed to Nevins & Whelan, which continued until Mr. Nevins retired, about 1850. He married the daughter of Jonathan Willis, and in this way became connected in relationship with James Martin, Esq., whose death we announced some days ago.

Mr. Nevins was an admirable specimen of the gentleman of the olden time, gentle and kind in his intercourse with those with whom business brought him in contact. He was a man of great originality of mind, of a liberal disposition, and given to hospitality. There was no one in Philadelphia more universally esteemed, and his eminent social qualities were always made him welcome wherever he was known. For many years he was a prominent member of the Board of Brokers and other public institutions of the city. His life will be severely felt in the circle in which he moved.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Every one blessed with family feels more or less interest in their being left in comfortable circumstances after the demise of their natural protector. The benefit which can possibly be adopted is a life insurance, by which a comparatively small amount paid per annum will render the dear and loved ones out of the reach of want in case of the accidental removal of the head of the family. The mercantile home institution holds out peculiar attractions in this respect. Their capital is large, and yearly upon the increase. The American depends upon its own previous history for the patronage of the public, and one of its best features is its directory. A person can decide from the following list of names, well-known citizens of Philadelphia, who is in charge, whether a company with such a set of directors is reliable or not.—Alexander H. Fulton, J. Edgar Thomson, George N. Packer, James Pollock, Albert C. Roberts, P. B. Magie, Samuel Work, William J. Howard, Samuel S. Bodine, John Aikman, Henry K. Bennett, Hon. Joseph Allison, Isaac Hazlehurst.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—We are under obligations to Messrs. Kelley, O'Neill, Thayer, Myers, and Randall for public documents relating to Congressional and national matters, and to Messrs. Ridgway, Connell, Subers, Ruddiman, Davis, and others for Legislative and State documents. Adams Express Company have our thanks for late Southern and Western newspapers. Rev. C. W. Denison has favored us with a copy of his new paper, the Anglo-American Times, published in London, England.

Mr. A. Winsor, No. 615 Chestnut street, has laid upon table the last received numbers of Temple Bar and Cornhill magazines; the Year Book, Once a Week, and Cassell's Illustrated Family Paper.

From John J. Kromer, No. 403 Chestnut street, we have received the New York Illustrated News, etc. We are indebted to Harry Gormer, Esq., for the latest issues of the Augusta (Georgia) Constitutionalist through the Adams Express Company.

WHOLESALE ARRESTS OF DISREPUTABLE CHARACTERS.—Last evening the police of the Second District made a descent in the neighborhood of Washington Square, and arrested over forty disreputable characters, all females. They were taken to the District Court Station House, and locked up. The neighborhood of Washington Square has been an intolerable nuisance, and the police are determined to put a stop to it.

STOLEN WEARING APPAREL RECOVERED.—Last evening a fellow was chased through Wallace street, in the Fifteenth Ward, having in his possession a large quantity of wearing apparel. The fellow was captured, and the clothing was secured, and taken to the Fifteenth Ward Station House to await identification. About 100 feet of rope is at the same Station House awaiting an owner.

STEALING CARPET.—James Carr was arrested yesterday evening for the larceny of some carpet taken from Price's second-hand store, situated on the Lancaster pike, near Thirty-ninth street. He was taken before Alderman Allen, who committed him. Others were engaged in the robbery, but they managed to escape. Carr was chased, and dropped the carpet during the pursuit.

STOLE SOME BOOTS, BUT COULDN'T KEEP THEM.—Last night a fellow was observed by the police at Juniper and South streets, having in his possession twenty pairs of boots. An officer gave chase, when the thief dropped the boots, and was out of sight in a twinkling.

VANDALISM.—William Johnson was taken into custody last evening at Twenty-second and Callowhill streets, charged with throwing a large paving stone through a window in the neighborhood. He was taken before Alderman Hutchinson, and held in $500 bail.

REOPENING OF CANAL NAVIGATION.—We are requested to state that the steamers of the Philadelphia and New York Express Steamboat Company have resumed their regular daily trips, the Delaware and Haritan Canal having reopened.

SALE OF MARBLE VASES AND BRONZES.—The collection of elegant vases, French bronzes, Bohemian glassware, &c., which is now on exhibition at Scott's Philadelphia Art Gallery, No. 1020 Chestnut street, will be sold to-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock. This assortment embraces many new and handsomely decorated vases and ornaments. Among the bronze figures will be found Daria de Gaby, Don Quixote, Massapa, Mourner, &c.

The whole invoice is the direct importation of Messrs. V. H. Brothers.

LACE AND MUELIN Curtains, at Patton's, No. 1408 Chestnut street.

NEW FINE STORY.—CHAPTER II.

In a few minutes Rosalie's note was in the hands of a young man, whose appearance would have been striking and interesting in the extreme, had his figure been less carelessly and neglected. "Strange indeed," he murmured, "that the cruel vigilance of Rosalie's father will allow her an opportunity even of sending a few lines to me!" With trembling fingers he tore open the note, and there fell out of it a scrap cut from a newspaper, on which were the following words:—

"TOWER HALL,
"No. 68 MARKET STREET,
"BENNETT & CO."

Urgent work of every description done immediately on call, at Patton's, No. 1408 Chestnut street.

THE CANADIAN SCAKE.—Ten thousand volunteers wanted! The Fenians are coming! Are you going to have the celebration of the 4th of July in November? The Fenians are coming! What shall we do? The Fenians are coming! How can we keep them out? We will go to George Francis Brown for advice and sympathy, if he is not out of these articles, and ask, "What shall we do?" We will as the first precautionary measure, get measured for a complete suit of Fenian Clothing at Charles Stokes & Co's Old Line, under the Continental, and let the season lock out for itself!

FURNITURE Repaired, Re-upholstered, and Var-nished, at W. Henry Patton's, No. 1408 Chestnut street.

IT GOES FURTHER.—It is the opinion of a West-ern editor that wool goes further when left out of doors than when well housed. He says some of his west had a ewe. One will go further than wool in keeping up a good fire. Get the celebrated Honey-trook Coal of W. W. Aker, No. 537 N. Ninth street, below Girard avenue, and you get the best article in the market. The coal at his yard is free from slate or dust, and is guaranteed to give satisfaction to the consumer. Call on Aker and supply your household for the coming season.
